

Nairobi Slumtours

- ☺ Want to go into a slum but worry about safety?
- ☺ Like to drink tea with a family in a shack?
- ☺ Thrilled to meet journalists of the ghetto radio Koch FM?
- ☺ Want to ask your local guide anything about slumlive?
- ☺ Interested in youth organisation Miss Koch?
- ☺ Like to buy some slum made souvenirs?
- ☺ Wish to see the dumpsite?

→ Book a slumtour with Raphael.

Phone: 07 254 070 28 (08.00-22.00 hours)

Or ask Upper Hill Campsite to phone for you.

Booking 1 day in advance.

Prize $ 20 per person for the guide, matatu, tea.

Maximum 4 persons per tour.

Please don't Wear very short skirts/shorts/open shoes. Bring jewellery/watches/telephone. Give money to people. Take pictures without permission. Wander around on your own:

Always stick to Raphael!

Nairobi slumtours is an idea of the Dutch writer Mary-Ann Sandifort and the Kenian Raphael Oduor Otieno who lives in Korogocho slum. Mary-Ann knows both Raphael and Korogocho since 12 years. She wrote a book about the slum and its inhabitants. It will be published, in Dutch, in April 2010 by Kosmos publishers.

Raphael + son

Mary-Ann